

Simcoe County Barn Quilts can be found in each of the County's 16 member municipalities

Barn quilts are the brain child of Donna Sue Groves who wanted to decorate an "ugly barn" for her mother who is an avid quilter

Many quilts were painted by residents at the County of Simcoe's four Long Term Care Homes

Barn Quilts are painted onto panels and attached to a barn wall

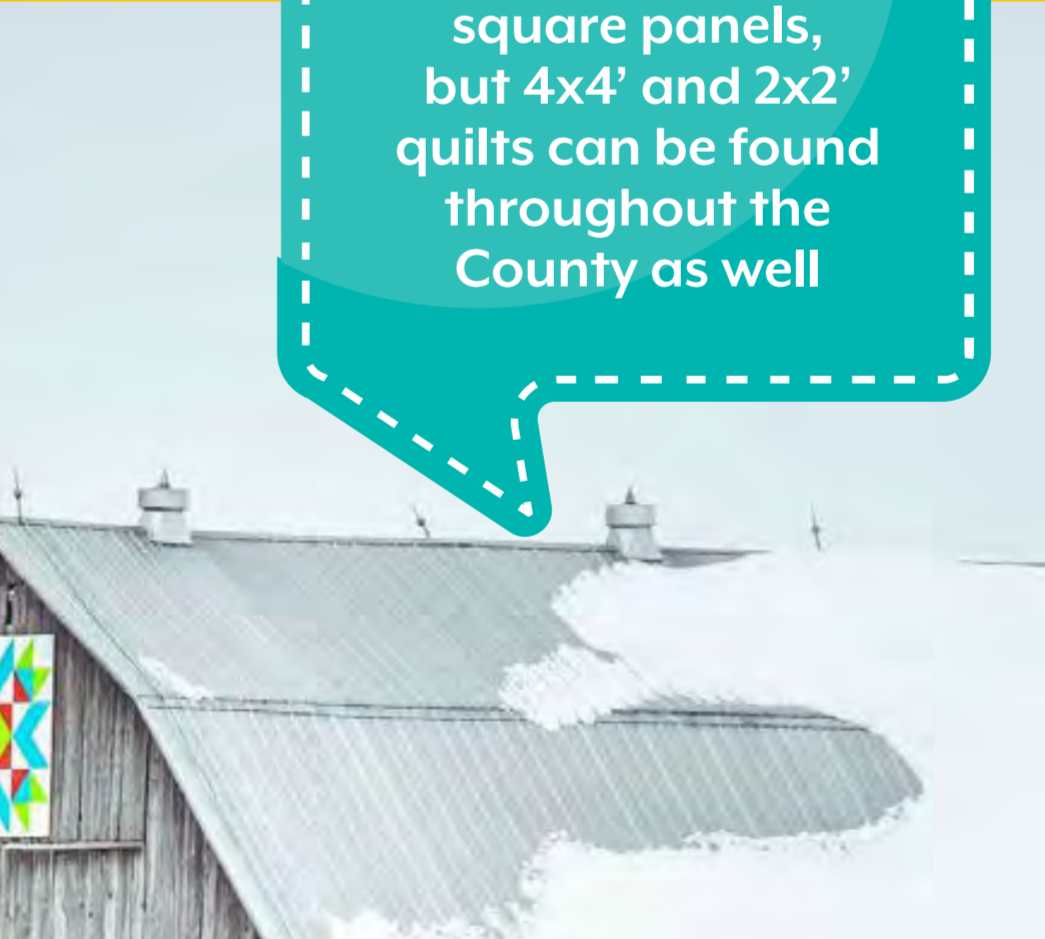

Ruth Hurdle, a professional painter who is based in Tiny Township, provided artistic consultation services and drew many of the Barn Quilts

All but three of the barn quilts were installed by Signz N Designz, who are based in the Township of Innisfil

Quilts are 8x8 feet, square panels, but 4x4' and 2x2' quilts can be found throughout the County as well

Simcoe County Barn Quilts are unique from others because they were created entirely by volunteer painters and hosts

Simcoe County Barn Quilts were created as a celebration of Canada's sesquicentennial

Some quilts are located on non-agricultural land. These celebrate the strong community partnerships that are integral to the County of Simcoe

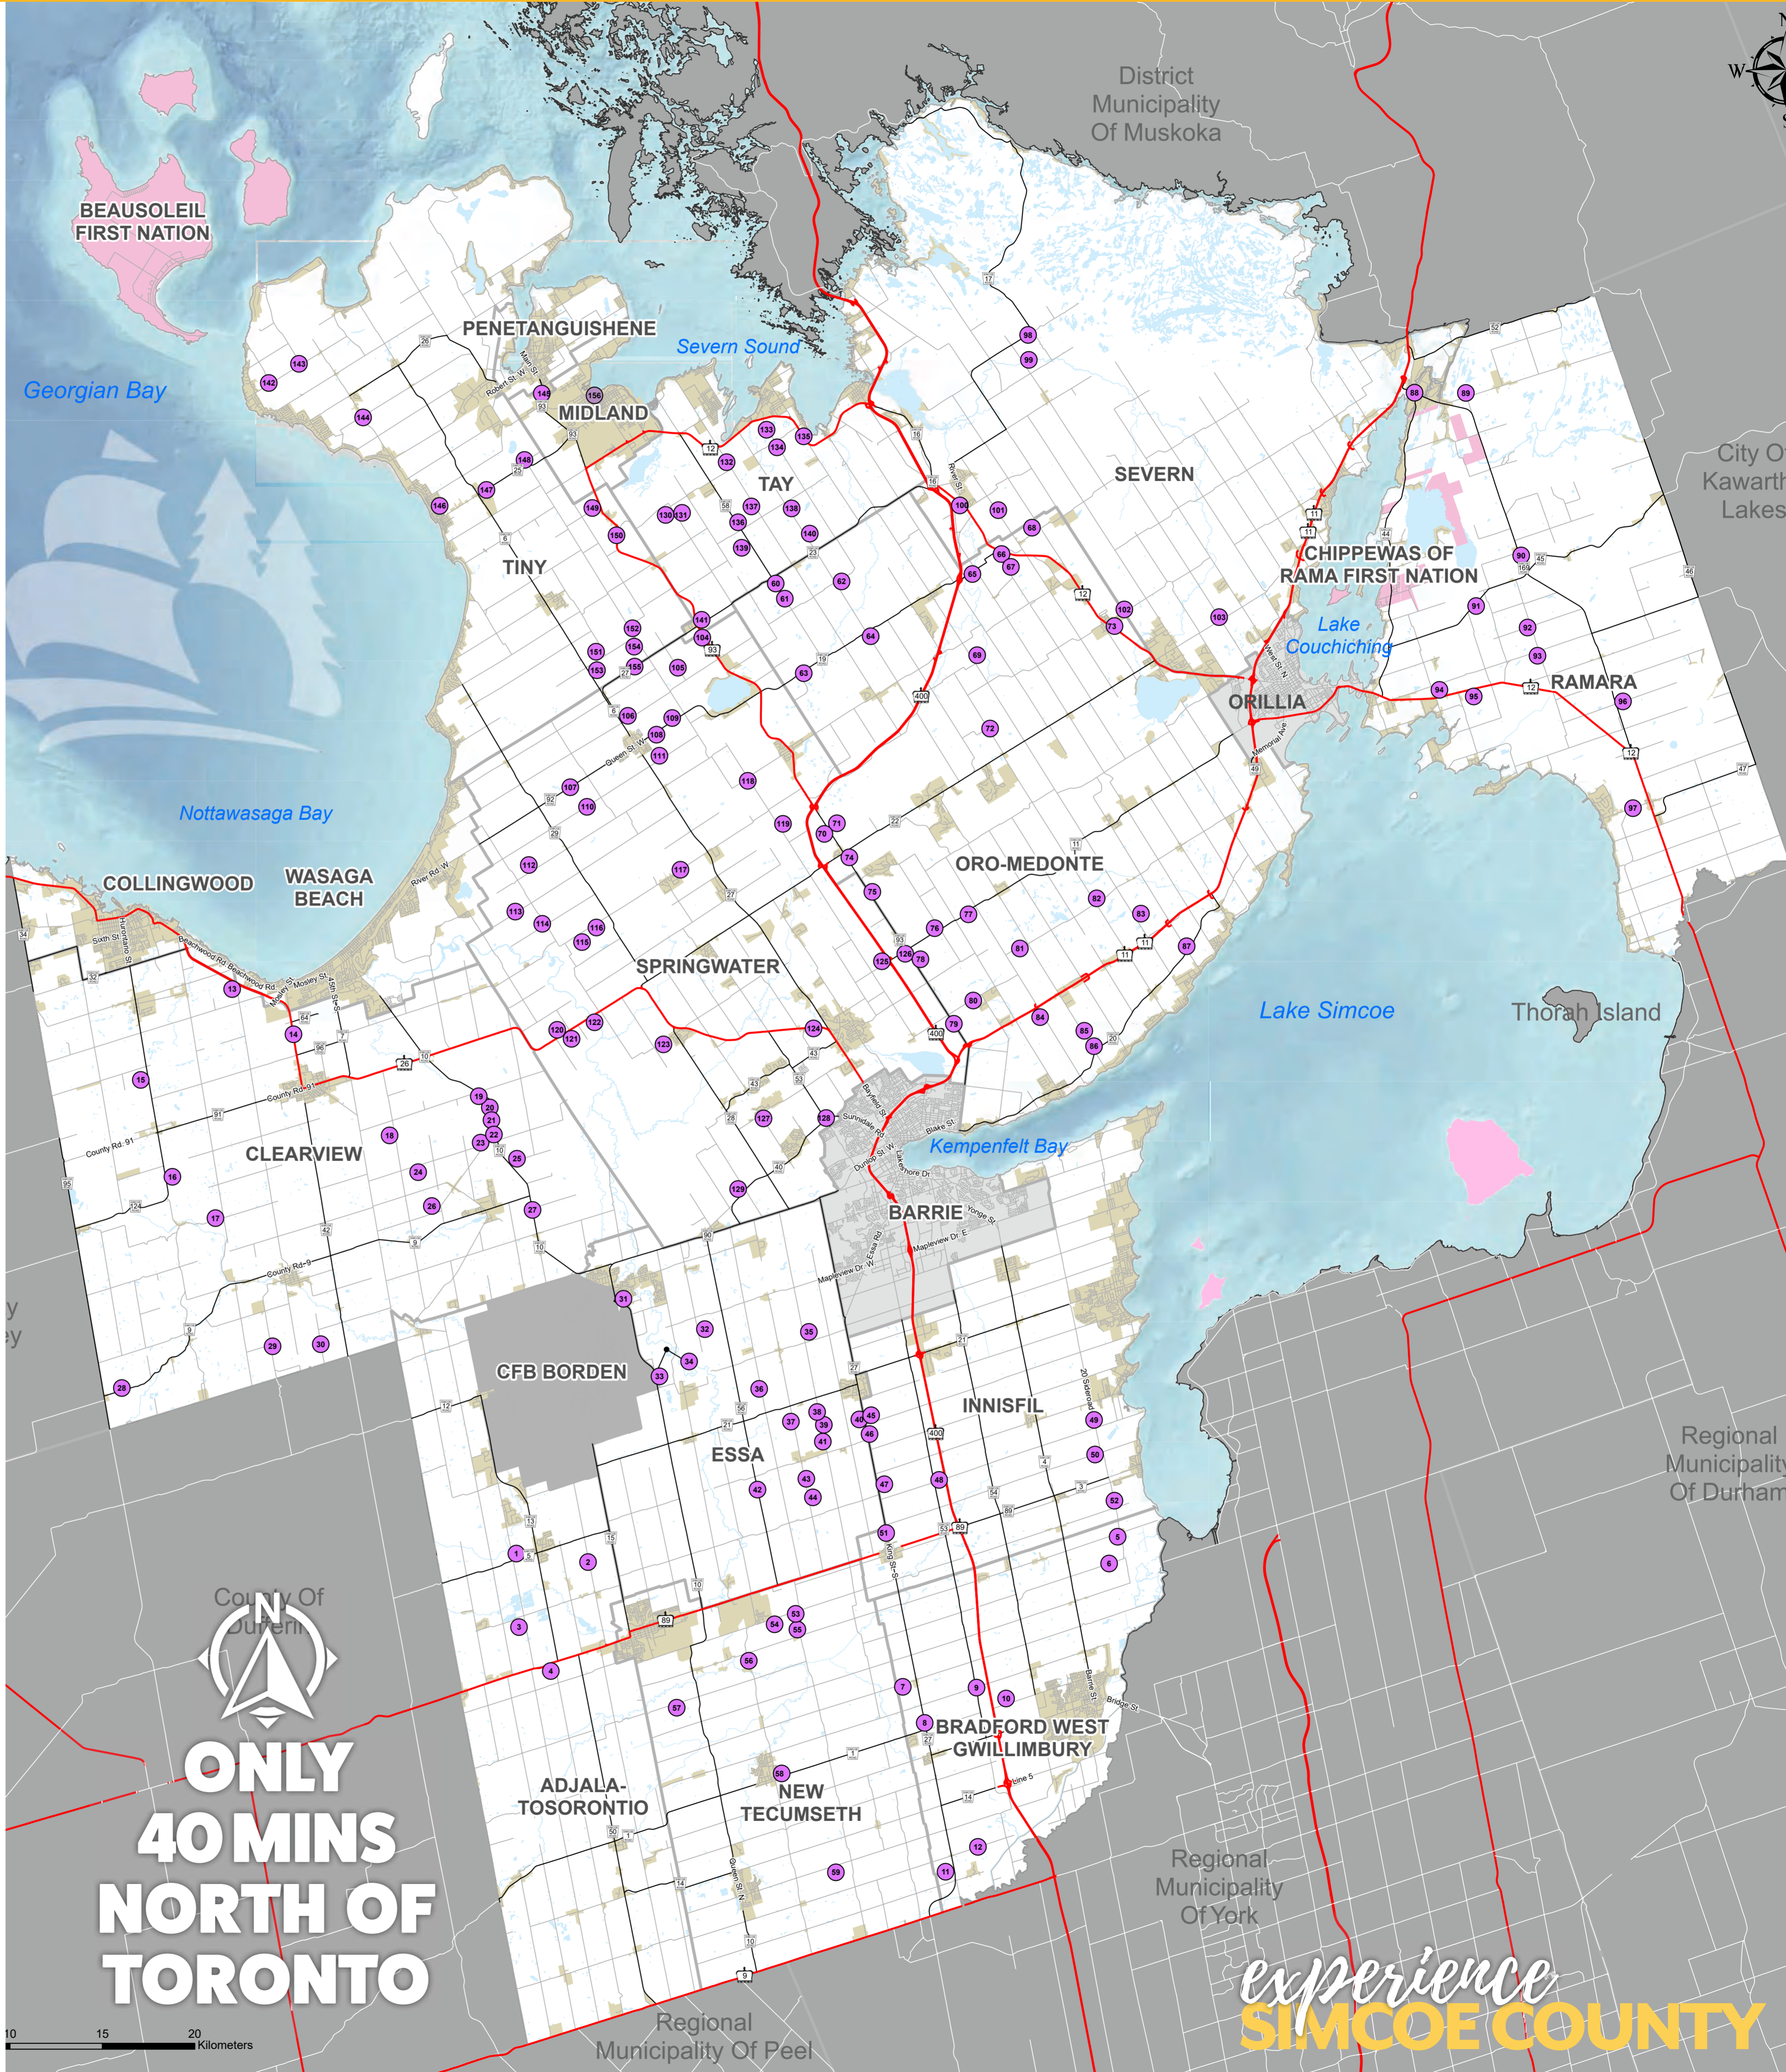

Disclaimer: Drive Safely and Respect Privacy. When viewing barn quilts please use caution when stopping or slowing down.

Please remember that most barns are on private property and the quilts must only be viewed from the safety of your vehicle, on the side of the road.
